Re: Release of Property

Dear Sir/Madam:

Enclosed please find:

1. Completed Notification of Results for Law Enforcement Gun Release (LEGR) Application for Rifle or Shotgun dated July 9, 2007. (Original with gold seal.)
2. Copy of April 23, 2007 Bill of Sale for one Lauer Custom Weaponry LCW-15, serial no.: SML 2586. Buyer: Eugene Hoffman. Seller: Darren King.
3. Copy of April 24, 2007 Bill of Sale for one Lauer Custom Weaponry LCW-15, serial no.: SML 2532. Buyer: Eugene Hoffman. Seller: Brian Lynch.
4. Copy of January 20, 2006 letter from the California Attorney General indicating that the receivers are legal under current law.

My client, Mr. Eugene Hoffman, Jr. has purchased the property indicated above. He understands and believes that these lower receivers are in the possession of the California Department of Justice Bureau of Firearms (formerly Division of Firearms) after a seizure of those and other receivers from RMB Enterprises, located at 1000 Jacklin Road, Milpitas, California. The seizure occurred on or about January 27, 2006.

My client looks forward to the return of his property within the time frame as specified in Penal Code Section 12021.3. You may contact my office to arrange delivery/pickup of the receivers.

Cordially,

Donald E. J. Kilmer, Jr.
Attorney for Eugene Hoffman, Jr.

RE: Lauer Custom LCW 15 Lower Receivers

To Whom it May Concern:

I am writing in response to your fax requesting confirmation that the Lauer Custom LCW 15 Lower Receivers may be transferred/DROS'd to California residents.

This particular receiver is not listed as a Category I assault rifle in California Penal Code (PC) section 12276. Although technically the receiver is legal to purchase and possess at this time (assuming it does not have the characteristics listed in PC section 12276.1(a)(1), (a)(2), or (a)(3)), you should be aware that the LCW 15 lower receiver is virtually identical to rifles that are now listed as assault weapons by the Department, and is likely to be considered an assault weapon in the near future.

If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me @ (916) 263-4881.

Sincerely,

Dana M. McKinnon
