14. On a public website maintained by Defendant Sacramento County, Defendant McGinness lays out his policy for determining applications to carry handguns, which explains, “[t]he mere fear of victimization, or desire to carry a firearm, shall be insufficient” “good cause” to issue a gun carry permit.	Exhibit A at 3. http://www.sacsheriff.com/forms/documents/ccw_policy.pdf (last visited July 22, 2009)
15. Defendant John McGinness’s handgun carry policy further provides: “[w]hat may be good cause in one area of the county may not be in another area.”	Exhibit A at 1 n.2. http://www.sacsheriff.com/forms/documents/ccw_policy.pdf (last visited July 22, 2009)
16. Defendant John McGinness’s handgun carry policy further provides that an applicant must have a minimum one year residency in Sacramento County at the time of an application for a handgun carry permit.	Exhibit A at 1. http://www.sacsheriff.com/forms/documents/ccw_policy.pdf (last visited July 22, 2009)
17. Recently, Defendant John McGinness, made a public announcement that, owing to budget cuts and the requirement that he lay off deputies, that he would adopt a more permissive policy toward issuing licenses to carry handguns.	Interview of Sheriff John McGinness. http://hoguenews.com/?p=904 (last visited July 30, 2009)
18. Defendant McGinness stated: “If we wind up with six patrol cars patrolling the entire county of Sacramento, I have no choice but to make some changes in terms of the issuances of concealed weapons permits.”	Interview of Sheriff John McGinness. http://hoguenews.com/wp-content/uploads/2009/06/mcginnis_bite_1.MP3 (last visited July 30, 2009)
19. Defendant McGinness stated: “In this scenario where we can not begin to assure people any element of safety, I think I have to make a change and would frankly probably collapse that committee [that screens handgun carry permit applications] and take on myself to issue those permits based on a person’s need to protect themselves.”	Interview of Sheriff John McGinness. http://hoguenews.com/wp-content/uploads/2009/06/mcginnis_bite_2.MP3 (last visited July 30, 2009)

2	20. Defendant Ed Prieto, as the Sheriff of Yolo County, has a written policy stating that “examples of invalid reasons to request a permit [are] self-protection and protection of family (without credible threats of violence.)”	Exhibit B. Exhibit B is a copy of the Yolo County Sheriff’s Department’s Concealed Weapon License Policy. The document is an 8 page fax from Yolo County Sheriff’s Office to Adam Richards. [Note: As this filing is a public record, Mr. Richard’s phone number has been redacted from the fax cover sheet.]
3	21. Plaintiff Deanna Sykes is a law abiding resident of Sacramento County.	Declaration of Plaintiff Deanna Sykes, ¶ 1.
4	22. Plaintiff Andrew Witham is a law abiding resident of Sacramento County.	Declaration of Plaintiff Andrew Witham, ¶ 1.
5	23. Plaintiff Adam Richards is a law abiding resident of Yolo County.	Declaration of Plaintiff Adam Richards, ¶ 1.
6	24. Plaintiffs Deanna Sykes, Andrew Witham and Adam Richards are all authorized and qualified under Federal and State law to purchase and possess firearms.	Declaration of Plaintiff Deanna Sykes, ¶ 2. Declaration of Plaintiff Andrew Witham, ¶ 2. Declaration of Plaintiff Adam Richards, ¶ 2.
7	25. Plaintiff Sykes seeks to exercise her Second Amendment right to carry a handgun for personal protection.	Declaration of Plaintiff Deanna Sykes, ¶ 3.
8	26. Plaintiff Sykes fears victimization, and desires to carry a firearm, but has not been specifically threatened nor has she been previously victimized by violent crime.	Declaration of Plaintiff Deanna Sykes, ¶ 4.
9	27. Plaintiff Sykes applied for a handgun carry permit from Defendant McGinness’s predecessor in Sacramento County but her request was denied.	Declaration of Plaintiff Deanna Sykes, ¶ 5.
10	28. Plaintiff Sykes has read the written policy of Defendant McGinness that “[t]he mere fear of victimization, or desire to carry a firearm, shall be insufficient” “good cause” to issue a gun carry permit and thus understands that she lacks “good cause” to obtain a permit as that term is defined and implemented by Defendants McGinness and Sacramento County.	Declaration of Plaintiff Deanna Sykes, ¶ 6.

29. Plaintiff Sykes fears arrest, prosecution, fine and imprisonment if she were to carry a handgun without a handgun carry permit. But for the lack of a handgun carry permit and fear of prosecution, Plaintiff Sykes would carry a handgun in public for self-defense.	Declaration of Plaintiff Deanna Sykes, ¶ 7.
30. On December 10, 2006, Plaintiff Witham completed the basic course required to obtain a handgun carry permit in Shasta County, as well as the course of training required to obtain a permit to carry an exposed firearm from the California Bureau of Security and Investigative Services.	Declaration of Plaintiff Andrew Witham, ¶ 3.
31. Plaintiff Witham has re-qualified four times for the exposed handgun permit, which he currently possesses, along with a Private Investigator license.	Declaration of Plaintiff Andrew Witham, ¶ 4.
32. Plaintiff Witham’s Private Investigator license, in conjunction with his Exposed Firearm Permit, allows him to carry an exposed, loaded handgun in California but only while he is engaged in the course and scope of his work as a private investigator.	Declaration of Plaintiff Andrew Witham, ¶ 5.
33. In January, 2007, the Sheriff of Shasta County, where Plaintiff Witham lived and worked, issued Witham a two-year permit to carry a handgun.	Declaration of Plaintiff Andrew Witham, ¶ 6.
34. On or about July, 2007, Plaintiff Witham relocated from Shasta to the City of Fairfield, in Solano County. As required by law, Witham notified the Sheriff of Shasta County of this move.	Declaration of Plaintiff Andrew Witham, ¶ 7.
35. On or about July, 2008, Plaintiff Witham relocated from Solano County to Sacramento County, and again notified the Sheriff of Shasta County of this move. Within days, Plaintiff Witham’s permit to carry a handgun was revoked.	Declaration of Plaintiff Andrew Witham, ¶ 8.

36. Plaintiff Witham contacted Defendant McGinness’s office to inquire about the revocation of his permit to carry a handgun, and was advised that a handgun carry permit would have to be issued by Defendant McGinness.	Declaration of Plaintiff Andrew Witham, ¶ 9.
37. Plaintiff Witham was further advised that application for a handgun carry permit could not be made by individuals residing in Sacramento County for less than 12 months, in the absence of a letter attesting to the applicant’s good character from the issuing authority of the applicant’s previous gun permit.	Declaration of Plaintiff Andrew Witham, ¶ 10.
38. As Plaintiff Witham had no such letter, he was refused an application form for a handgun carry permit.	Declaration of Plaintiff Andrew Witham, ¶ 11.
39. Plaintiff Witham was advised that as a matter of policy, the Sheriff of Shasta County does not issue good character letters of the sort required by Defendant McGinness.	Declaration of Plaintiff Andrew Witham, ¶ 12.
40. Although Defendant McGinness does not require that handgun permit applications complete the required training prior to making their applications, Plaintiff Witham was certified on December 16, 2008, in 24 hours of POST PC 832 Firearms Familiarization at the Sacramento Regional Public Safety Training Center. The course is approved for issuance of a handgun carry permit in Sacramento County.	Declaration of Plaintiff Andrew Witham, ¶ 13.
41. Plaintiff Witham seeks to exercise his Second Amendment right to carry a handgun for personal protection.	Declaration of Plaintiff Andrew Witham, ¶ 14.
42. Plaintiff Witham fears victimization, and desires to carry a firearm, but has not previously been victimized by violent crime. Although Witham was previously threatened, the threats subsided after he left Shasta County. Witham is unaware of any current, specific threats against him.	Declaration of Plaintiff Andrew Witham, ¶ 15.

43. Plaintiff Witham has read Defendant McGinness’s written policy that “[t]he mere fear of victimization, or desire to carry a firearm, shall be insufficient” “good cause” to issue a gun carry permit” and thus understands that he lacks “good cause” to obtain a permit as that term is defined and implemented by Defendants McGinness and Sacramento County.	Declaration of Plaintiff Andrew Witham, ¶ 16.
44. Plaintiff Witham fears arrest, prosecution, fine and imprisonment if he were to carry a concealed handgun without a permit. But for the lack of handgun carry permit and fear of prosecution, Plaintiff Witham would carry a concealed handgun in public for self-defense.	Declaration of Plaintiff Andrew Witham, ¶ 17.
45. In March, 2009, Plaintiff Adam Richards contacted Defendant Prieto’s office to inquire about the process for obtaining a permit to carry a handgun. Defendant Prieto’s office advised Plaintiff Richards that the desire to have a gun available for self-defense would not constitute “good cause” for the issuance of the permit, and that he should not apply because doing so would be a futile act.	Declaration of Plaintiff Adam Richards, ¶ 3.
46. Plaintiff Richards was further advised that as a matter of policy, his application would also not be considered unless he first applied to the Chief of Police in the City of Davis, where he resides.	Declaration of Plaintiff Adam Richards, ¶ 4.
47. Plaintiff Richards subsequently applied to Davis Police Chief Lanny Black for a permit to carry a handgun. On April 1, 2009, Police Chief Black denied Plaintiff Richards’ application for a handgun carry permit, stating that for budgetary reasons his department no longer processes handgun carry permit applications, and suggested that Richards seek a permit from Sheriff Prieto.	Declaration of Plaintiff Adam Richards, ¶ 5.
48. Plaintiff Richards seeks to exercise his Second Amendment right to carry a handgun for personal protection.	Declaration of Plaintiff Adam Richards, ¶ 6.
